NEED YOUR HELP.

Every man in Louisville should render Mayor Buschmeyer, James B. Brown and Donald McDonald every assistance possible in their endeavor to secure the location here of the proposed $11,000,000 armor plate plant. This great industry would be of immense benefit to this city, which is equipped to meet all requirements. Therefore help all you can.

TROUBLE FOR FLORIDA.

The Rev. Sidney J. Catts, Baptist minister, who came to Florida four years ago, was on Tuesday inaugurated Governor at Tallahassee. In his address he pledged himself to State-wide prohibition and urged the passage of a law providing for police inspection of parochial schools, convents and nunneries. Poor Florida! Her troubles have surely begun—troubles that will bring the State into disrepute and inflict incalculable harm.

SPURN PEACE.

As long as the Entente Allies believe that they can wear out Germany they will not consider peace terms. That they still are confident that they can win in the end is shown by the declaration of Czar Nicholas that Germany wants peace because she fears that she can hold out only for a short time. This may be true and it may not. To an outsider it appears that Germany can now hold out longer than her enemies. But that does not affect the question of peace which the Allies believe they can dictate when they choose. At any rate, they do not want peace now.

UNSATISFACTORY.

All must agree with the True Voice that carrying on negotiations with Carranza seems to get us nowhere in adjusting the Mexican muddle. The administration at Washington is still patiently waiting on the pleasure of the "de facto" incorrigible, who must be laughing up his sleeve at "gringo" credulity. While the time limit set for the approval of the protocol drawn by the Mexican-American Commission has expired, Washington is still hoping that Carranza will come to terms. Refusal to accept the terms of the agreement under which American troops would be withdrawn from Chihuahua means the closing of negotiations through the joint commission for adjustment of the questions at issue between the United States and the de facto government of Mexico. What effect the new situation then presented would have on the policy of the United States is not known, but it is likely that any further move will be made through the usual channels and not by the commission, which for more than three months attempted to effect an amicable settlement. It may be that Pershing's force will be recalled to this side of the border without even the formality of an agreement. We will then be in precisely the same position we were in a year ago, except that the Villa bandit force has grown much more formidable in that time, and as Villa has increased in power Carranza has decreased. But we are still tied to the latter bandit. It is reported from Washington that representatives of this Government who are most familiar with the recent conferences with Carranza representatives are totally disgusted with Carranza and the men whom he sent to represent his cause. They feel that it is virtually useless to continue discussions of the situation because neither Carranza nor his representatives can speak for more than a handful of grafting generals and professional patriots whose principal concern is to fill their own coffers at the expense of the people.

WEAKNESS NOT APPARENT.

By their approval of President Wilson's peace circular the Central Powers have put the responsibility for prolonging the war squarely on the shoulders of the Allies. In doing so the Teutons have also put on the President the duty of bringing what pressure he can bear on the allied governments to make their position clear. The Allies are demanding that the Teutons name the terms, and pretend to see in the omission to do this a sign of Teutonic weakness. On the other hand, had the Central Powers set forth the terms which would be acceptable to them, they would be accused of trying to take advantage of a temporary situation favorable to them to dictate to Europe and the world. The Central Powers can, however, afford to let the Allies draw what conclusions they please from their approval of the President's peace move. On the western front the German line remains unbroken. The great drives of England and France have failed to accomplish anything. In the Trentino the Austrians have held their own, and the Bulgars have effectually checked the Serbs and the allied armies from the Salonika base. On the eastern front Rumania has been conquered and German and Austrian guns are hammering at the gates of Bessarabia. The Turks have driven the Russians to the Caucasus and defeated the English in Mesopotamia, and are now preparing a huge army to invade Egypt. This is the situation at present. Where the Allies can see any weakness here is not apparent. As a matter of fact, the Allies hoped that the successes of the Central Powers would induce them to play the role of dictators, in which case it was expected that the United States would be induced to take a hand in the war in an effort to curb Teutonic pretensions and restore the balance of power. The Teutons did not fall into the trap; hence it is now up to the President to see that the Allies will put no undue obstacles in the way of peace.

The estimated population of Louisville, according to figures given out by the Director of the Census, is 238,910, a gain for 1916 of about 1,900. Covington, Lexington, Newport, Paducah and Owensboro are Kentucky's next largest cities.

PAPERS NEEDED.

That Catholic literature is really necessary to the Catholic people of small towns is evidenced by the many letters that come to the Catholic Church Extension Society from missionaries in charge of outlying districts of the country requesting the Extension Society to secure literature for distribution among their parishioners. Rarely if ever in some rural districts can you find a Catholic paper or book of any description. This is due no doubt to the fact that in most cases these people are just about making a living and do not feel as though they can even spare the small amount that it costs to subscribe to some good Catholic paper. Without Catholic reading matter and with mass perhaps but once a month, is there any wonder that these people are often not as devout Catholics as they should be? Donations for the purchase of Catholic papers and literature will be gratefully received by the Catholic Church Extension Society, 750 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

ENGLAND'S BLUNDER.

The following letter to the New York World pretty aptly sizes up the present feeling between England and Ireland and its people and descendants wherever they may be: Your editorial "Too Late," referring to the release of Irish political prisoners by England, is the truth. But it is another blunder of the many English blunders in Ireland. Suppose that thirty, twenty, ten or five years ago England had given to Ireland a full measure of self-government, is there any person who believes that England's present position in this war would be as it is now? Ireland would have been the first colony to send half a million men to the front. The Irish throughout the world would be with England in this fight, for in doing so they would be preserving their independence by preserving England's. As Castlereagh said: "England will fire the last shot in the last gun before Ireland is free." It looks very much as if he were a true prophet.

ECLIPSES.

There will be four eclipses of the sun and three of the moon visible in the United States, the greatest number possible in a single year, in 1917, according to a memorandum issued by the Naval Observatory. The last year in which seven eclipses came was early in the last century, and the next will be in 1935. On January 8 there will be a total eclipse of the moon by the earth's shadow, visible throughout the United States, beginning at 12:50 a. m. and ending at 4:30 a. m. Eastern Standard time. Between 2 and 3:29 a. m., Eastern time, the eclipse will be total.

JUSTICE McKENNA.

It is reported that Associate Justice McKenna, of the Supreme Court, is soon to resign. He was appointed by President McKinley. The man most likely to succeed him is Senator Walsh.

ON DADDY'S LAP.

When the shades of night have fallen,
When the sun has gone to sleep,
And the stars like diamonds brilliant
From the blue begin to peep,
In my favorite chair I'm seated;
On the door a gentle tap,
And dear voices break the silence,
"Want to sit on daddy's lap!"

So I lay aside my paper,
Though I'd like to scan it o'er,
And a lad 'gainst either shoulder
Asks a story—"Just one more."
Then I tell them "Orphan Annie,"
"Doodle Bug," "Three Bears,"
mayhap,
Till the place is filled with laughter,
When they sit on daddy's lap.
Then we drift to Bible stories,
Of the Christ, the poorest One.
Eyes are closed, the lips are silent,
And my gladness task is done,
To the land of Nod they've journeyed.
'Tis no fitful, restless nap;
For the night they're safely anchored—
Fast asleep on daddy's lap.

And I sit here, in the frelight,
Dreaming dreams of future years,
Of my babies—such no longer—
Till my eyes are wet with tears,
And a prayer ascends to heaven;
"Father, bless each little chap,
Keep him pure, as at this moment,
Safe at rest on daddy's lap."

VICTORY FOR KENNEDY.

J. Farrell Kennedy, representing the Mackin Council team, scored a decided victory New Year's day by winning the Louisville Athletic Federation three-mile race, closely followed by others of the Mackin runners. Kennedy is one of the most promising runners developed in this section, and already has several marathon victories to his credit.

It will be presented at St. Martin's Hall, Shelby and Gray, and will include a splendid cast.

CONCORDIA SINGING SOCIETY.

The Concordia Singing Society, one of the pioneer musical organizations of this country, will celebrate its diamond jubilee at the Tyler Hotel on January 23. The Concordia has an enviable record, having taken part in the principal religious and civic events in Louisville since its organization.

LEAVES NEW ALBANY.

John Riley, well known in New Albany and Southern Indiana, left Wednesday for Dayton, Ohio, where he will take a position in the mechanical engineering department of that city.

SENIOR BISHOP.

The recent consistory in Rome has drawn attention to the fact that Cardinal Gibbons is now the senior Bishop of the whole Catholic world.

CHURCH BURNED.

St. Bernard's church at Rockport, Ind., caught fire from a Christmas tree New Year's day and was totally destroyed. The loss is $20,000, partly covered by insurance. Rev. Francis Schaub is the pastor, and for him and his flock the people of that section of Indiana have a sincere sympathy.

MAYSVILLE.

Patrick H. Breen, aged seventy-three years, born in County Wexford, Ireland, died at his home in Maysville on Tuesday after a few days' illness of pneumonia. He had the distinction of having been in the employ of one firm longer than any other man there, being with the W. B. Matthews Lumber Company for forty-three years. He is survived by three children, Mrs. Roger Devine, of Cleveland; Edward Breen, of Louisville, and Thomas Breen, of Louisville.

COSTLY GIFTS.

St. Cecilia's pro-Cathedral, in process of construction at Omaha, is to be enriched by gifts from several prominent Omaha Catholic families. The President will make a gift of the marble altar, while the pulpit, also of marble, will be presented by the Coad family. The Bishop's throne will be the gift of Mrs. Ben Gallagher, and Frank Burkley will give the organ. Work on the interior will be pushed as rapidly as possible, so that the Cathedral may be in readiness for Easter Sunday. It is believed by experts that when the building is finished the acoustics will be absolutely perfect.

SCHWAB'S BIG PROMISE.

Charles M. Schwab has informed Baltimore friends that he will endow St. Francis' College at Loretto, Pa., near Altoona, his alma mater, with $2,000,000. The larger part of the gift is to be devoted to the erection of new buildings. The college is conducted by the Franciscans.

AMERICA HONORED.

At Nazareth in the Holy Land the Franciscan fathers have given their new convent and church the name of "Our Lady of America."

GEN. LOGAN'S WIDOW.

In the convention of Catholic Alumnae Mrs. John A. Logan was a notable figure, and in a conversation at a luncheon at the Sisters' College told of her life in a Kentucky convent. This convent, known to every Kentuckian, whether Catholic or Protestant, is that of St. Vincent's, Union county, and is one of the historic and ideal spots of a State universally praised for its pastoral and picturesque beauty. The grounds comprise some six hundred acres. The drive, a magnificent sweep of road from gate to the porte-cochere, is overshadowed by giant oaks. Calm dignity, coolness and southern gracious hospitality are all combined in the effect upon a visitor to this academy. Across the road from the school is the ancient Church of the Sacred Heart, where many historic priests have knelt before the altar that shows the stains of time. In the convent the girls from many of Kentucky's most famous families have been taught the love of books, music and how to best use the social grace that so many of St. Vincent's graduates have been famous for when they have passed from school to homes of their own, and nowhere else will you find the practical Catholic so devout, yet so gracefully unconscious of the world during the devotions and so gracefully aware of it when dealing with some social function. Among the names of great families known in this school, the one of Spalding is justly treasured. Seldom has a term passed since its foundation without the school having some member of the Spalding family in it, says Sallie M. O'Malley in the Syracuse Sun.

SOME 1917 DATES.

February 2, Candlemas; 21, Ash Wednesday; March 17, St. Patrick's day; March 19, St. Joseph's day; 25, Passion Sunday and Annunciation of Our Lady; April 1, Palm Sunday; 5, Holy Thursday; 6, Good Friday; 7, Holy Saturday; 8, Easter Sunday; May 17, Ascension Thursday; 27, Pentecost Sunday; June 3, Trinity Sunday; 10, Corpus Christi; 15, Feast of the Sacred Heart; October 7, Holy Trinity Sunday; December 2, Advent Sunday.

MOTHER DREXEL.

Mother Katherine Drexel, the most widely known and honored Catholic lady, religious and convert in the church in this country, is now in her fifty-seventh year and in her thirtieth as a religious, but in appearance looks many years younger. Through her about 160 schools for negroes have been established, attended by about 11,000 pupils.

FINE MONASTERY SITE.

The Passionist Order has secured a new tract of land on Fifty-eighth street, one-half mile north of the Orchard care line, near Moines, Iowa. In the near future it is expected that arrangements will be made for the erection of a monastery and seminary which will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

WOMEN VOTE THERE.

Chicago women are voters, yet in that city it is estimated that 10,000 girls are employed in cabarets under the most vicious and demoralizing conditions. Granting women the franchise has not yet worked any visible improvement anywhere. The world probably felt contaminated by coming in touch with their unfortunate sisters.

FUTURE GREAT CHURCH.

A campaign has been started by the Redemptorist Fathers of Brooklyn, N. Y., to raise funds for the completion of the $1,000,000 Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Bay Ridge. This structure, at present only a basement, will be the greatest church building in Brooklyn when completed.

ST. MALACHY'S PROPHECY.

According to St. Malachy's prophecy there will be seven more Popes, the end of the world to come during the reign of "Peter the Roman." This is the paragraph which alludes to that prophecy: "In the final persecution of the Holy Roman church there will reign Peter the Roman, who will feed his flock amid many tribulations, after which the seven-hilled city will be destroyed and the dreadful Judge will judge the people. The end."

RIGHT PRINCIPLES.

While organized labor has agitated for and secured shorter hours of labor, higher rates of wages, and has vastly improved the industrial conditions of the army of toilers, it has also championed those principles of reform that must inevitably evolve a wider and a freer social atmosphere.

$46,019 NET PROFIT.

President John J. O'Leary, of the Irish Relief Fund Bazar, held at Madison Square Garden in October, announces a net profit of $46,019.28 had resulted. The profits have been turned over to the Irish Relief Fund Committee, of which Thomas Hughes Kelly is Treasurer.

PROHIBITION.

The District of Columbia prohibition bill will be finally disposed of in the Senate next Tuesday. It is doubtful when the national prohibition amendment will be called up for action, and some Senators predict that it can not get the two-thirds vote necessary at this session.

VATICAN TREASURE.

The most costly book in the world is a Hebrew Bible in the possession of the Vatican. Its weight in gold amounts to $103,000, was refused for it.

THREE EVERY WEEK.

The Catholic Church Extension Society, Chicago, has erected nearly 1,200 chapels in the Catholic world—building about three every week.

Nisbet Announces For Magistracy of the Eighth Magisterial District.

To the Voters of the Eighth Magisterial District, Comprising the First to the Ninth Precincts Exclusive of the Eleventh Ward, and the Twelfth Ward.

Fellow Citizens:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for Magistracy of the Eighth Magisterial District, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election in August, 1917.

I have been a resident of the city of Louisville and particularly the Eleventh and Twelfth wards all of my life, and have practiced law at the local bar since 1909. I have never before offered myself for any public office or trust and I promise that if I receive the nomination and am finally elected at the November election, 1917, I shall faithfully, impartially and efficiently discharge the duties of the office of Magistracy.

I further pledge myself not only to work in the interest of my own nomination but for the ultimate success of the entire Democratic ticket. Having been a practicing attorney for seven years I feel qualified to perform the duties of the office of Magistracy.

Very sincerely,
ALBERT NISBET.

MEMORIAL

Margaret Kilkenny, Who Died January 5, 1916.

One year has passed in silence,
Our home without a guide,
We feel the blight of darkness
Since you were taken from our side.

While we know we should not murmur
Against God's holy will,
Your place is always vacant,
That place we can not fill.

We miss your words in counsel,
We miss your loving smile,
We miss your care and tenderness,
We miss you all the while.

We know your home is heaven,
Of that we rest assured,
For your loving disposition
And your heart were always pure.

We little knew of trouble
And little knew of care,
No trial on earth could shake us
With companionship so fair.

Death alone only could cause
A cloud so dark for me,
That vacant chair, that lonely home,
Is all that I can see.

A ray of hope is left for me,
Which is sure for every one,
When I am waked to meet you,
When my life's work is done.

J. J. KILKENNY AND CHILDREN.

RETURN THANKS.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

The big holiday event in Knights of Columbus circles in Omaha was the Christmas tree at the Orphanage.

The council at Richmond, Ind., ended the year by conferring the first degree on a representative class.

The Knights of Wisconsin are going to stage a State bowling tournament at Milwaukee, where they have four big leagues.

More than 1,300 orphans, regardless of creed, were gladdened by the Christmas tree entertainment provided for them by the Knights of New Orleans.

The Knights of Little Rock attended special services in the Cathedral Sunday night. Monsignor Tobin preached the sermon and various priests were present.

Organized only two years, the council at Humphrey, Neb., has now about 150 members. Last month a class of fifty candidates was received into the council.

From an humble beginning a quarter of a century ago, the Knights of Columbus has grown until it now has a total membership of 369,390 and assets of almost $7,000,000.

Rev. E. J. Mannix, Colorado State Chaplain, of the Denver Cathedral parish, will be the principal speaker when a large class of candidates will be taken in at Trinidad on January 14.

Two of the important committees for the inauguration of President Wilson will have for Chairmen James S. Easby-Smith and Daniel J. Callahan, two well-known members of Washington Council.

President Cammack, of the Kansas City Board of Education, has approved the plan of the local Knights to give prizes to the parochial and public school pupils for annual essays on patriotic subjects.

KNIGHTS AND LADIES.

Hon. C. H. Marr, of Wyandotte, Mich., Supreme President of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America, and Henry F. Hayes, of Chicago, Supreme Secretary, will be guests of the local branches of the order late in January. A mass meeting of all officers of the local branches was held in the office of Dr. Charles A. Eden, Supreme Medical Director, Friday night to complete entertainment arrangements. The Very Rev. Charles P. Raffo is the Supreme Spiritual Director of the order. The Catholic Knights of Ladies of America were founded in Louisville, and St. Patrick's branch is one of the largest in the country.

ELECTED SUPERIOR.

Sister M. Agatha Cahill was elected Superior of Cardome Academy, to succeed the late Mother Angela Sweeney, by the Sisters of the Visitation Convent. Right Rev. Bishop Brossart presided. Mother M. Agatha was born in Maysville, being a member of a prominent family in that city. She together with Sister Mary Cecilia were the first postulants received by Mother Angela into the Cardome community at White Sulphur on July 14, 1875. She alternated with Mother Angela as Superior for the last thirty years, according to the rule of the Sisterhood, by whom she is held in high regard.

AWFUL DEATH.

Mrs. Josephine Wachtel, sixty years old, met with an awful death Friday morning at Second and Oak streets, when she was run down and crushed by an automobile. The unfortunate woman had just alighted from the street car when she was struck by the machine following the car, being hurled twenty feet. Passengers carried her into the St. Ives apartments, where she was attended by Dr. Abell, and despite all efforts she expired within thirty minutes. A son, George Wachtel, and a daughter, Mrs. Edward Schaefer, survive her. This is another result of the lax enforcement of the ordinances governing the running of automobiles.
